

ARTIST JAMES HAUTMAN

Born in 1964, James Hautman grew up in an artistic family surrounded by nature. He has been drawing and painting wildlife subjects for over 40 years. In 1989, at age 25, he became the youngest winner of the Federal Duck Stamp Contest. He has gone on to win 5 more times, 1995, 1999, 2011, 2017 and 2022. In addition to his record setting 6 Federal wins, he has painted over 25 state conservation stamp designs and the 1990 Australian Duck Stamp.

He has twice been named Ducks Unlimited International Artist of the Year, in 1991 and 2010. In 2002 Jim and his brothers Robert and Joe were commissioned by the United Nations to paint a series for their endangered species stamp collection. Jim's artwork has been displayed in the Oval Office of the White House, the Smithsonian Institution, the Leigh Yawkey Woodson Art Museum, the United Nations and in public and private collections throughout the world. Jim and his wife Dorothy live in Minnesota.
